

Galway Bay chords by Celtic Woman

Capo: 1st fret

Capo 1

[Intro]

D

D A
If you ever go across the sea to Ireland,
A D
then maybe at the closing of your day,
D
you can sit and watch the moon rise over
G Claddagh,
A D
and see the sun go down on Galway Bay.

D A
Just to hear again the ripple of the trout

stream,
A D
The women in the meadow making hay,
D
just to sit beside the turf fire in a G
cabin,
A D
and watch the barefoot gossons as they play

G D Em D G D A
Ooooh Ooooh Ooooh oooh

D
For the breezes blowing o'er the sea's from

A Ireland,
A D
Are perfumed by the heather as they blow,
D
And the women in the uplands digging
G
praties

Em
Speak a language that the strangers do not A know.

G
Yet the strangers came and tried to teach

u

D
s their ways,
C
And they scorned us just for being what we

Em
are,

F
But they might as well go chasin after moon

Am beams, Bb Em A
or light a penny candle from a star.

D A
And if there's gonna be a life here after,

A D
And somehow I'm sure there's gonna be,
D
I will ask my God to let me make my G
Heaven,
A D
In that dear land across the Irish sea.

D
I will ask my God to let me make my G
Heaven,
A D
In my dear land across the Irish sea.
